

LIBRO DI TESTO: Ready for Planet English

Grammar:

The alphabet and spelling

Greetings

Cardinal numbers

Articles: A, AN, THE

The noun: the regular and irregular plural, nouns ending in S,SS, SH,CH, X, Z, O;
nouns ending in consonant + y

Personal pronouns

Possessive, qualifying (before nouns and after to be), demonstrative and nationality adjectives

The Saxon genitive with singular, regular plural and two nouns

Asking for and giving personal information:

- What is the spelling of...?
- What is your name/first name/surname/ nationality?
- Where are you from?
- How old are you?
- How are you?

To be

There is/there are

To have got

Use and forms of Simple Present of common verbs, verbs ending in consonant+ Y, verbs ending in ss-sh-ch-x-z-o, verbs using have (have a shower, have dinner, have lunch)

Adverbs of frequency

CAN: Ability, permission, requests

Affirmative and negative imperative

Question words: what, who, where, when, how, why, how many, what time, which

WHAT + BE + SOGGETTO + ABOUT ?

WHAT + DO/DOES + SOGGETTO + LOOK LIKE ?

Vocabulary: days of the week, parts of the day

Pronunciation: TH, aspirate and silent H, W, silent W, Y, stress

Civilization: The United Kingdom, Great Britain and their capital cities

Features of the English language: homophones, homographs, collocations, false friends

Citizenship: “The problems of the Earth” (pollution, climate change, deforestation, their causes and effects, how we can help the environment)

Oristano, 12/06/2025

La docente

Valeria Capra